The New York Times

As a Palestinian woman raised in the suburbs of Perth, Australia, Ms. Bahbah struggled with identity and self-expression. She turned to art as a way to process her experiences and heal.

My art is birthed from the deeply challenging and sacred act of giving myself permission to be emotionally transparent," she said.

gradient-mind sent a post "I've had 3 close family relatives pass away in t...

Hey was kinda scrolling thru ur blog top posts, seeing this probably old- but u feeling ok m?

Traces unfortunately I posted that a few hours ago. I'm not feeling great at the moment and I'm still processing my emotions with it all. The playlist you sent helped put me in a better space though. I appreciate you checking in that's love. ❤️ gradient-mind Oh damn... my condolences. I'm happy it helped you, I'd be glad to send u more playlists for whatever mood u in and I'd be here to distract u in any way u'd like :)

Traces thank you you're an angel. more music and good conversation is always welcome around here 🌈

Traces You're welcome and thank you for opening that door of communication I appreciate that. I don't believe in strangers though, us connecting now means we've connected before maybe in another life? Energy gets recycled. 🌈

Traces but yes, I'm all for it you carry a really gentle energy I appreciate that.

gradient-mind Ah damnnn ur hell deep and shit i like iiiit ahahahahah

Or deep isnt the word i mean

Idk i rily just like the way u think ahahah

Thanks thoo ahaha

Traces haha thank you. I just be out here educating myself as best i can. I appreciate that though!

gradient-mind Aww thanks

Traces you're welcome. break ups are tough, loving someone and letting them go is tough so I completely understand what you're going through. Smoke weed, smile, laugh.. it will get better with time.

gradient-mind Thank you so much

I don't want to use weed as self-medication tho

Which is kinda happening now

A breakup is especially confusing when you dont even know if its rily over

Traces that's what weed is actually for though, it's the least harmful way for us to self medicate. As long as you don't become dependent on it to cope then you're good.

Traces You can talk about it if you'd like. I'm all ears, get it off your chest/heart. If you don't that's ok too.

Feels like we're all just focusing on the wrong stuff. When we grow old will we really remember all the useless shit we're so caught up in m? Just wanna skip this part of my life and go straight to the unforgettable moments.

But wtf do I do with all these feelings tho

16 notes

I'm done writing and thinking about it. No more, ease your mind and rest. There's nothing you can do about it now, so you might as well get sum sleep.

Knowing that no one can rush love gives me ease.

I just don't understand how people can judge other people's actions so fast, I honestly can't judge a situation I've never been in.

If she cheated on u

milktoxast:
Maybe she changed
I've always had a bad time
